

Business Profile

Kim Hildebrant

Kim Hildebrant, a Danish citizen living more than 20 years in Lugano is CEO & Founder of KNC Consulting, specializing in interim management and security, and is the Chair of the CMC Cybersecurity and Management Challenges Symposiums.

As son of a Danish career diplomat, he has travelled extensively throughout the world and lived in interesting and challenging countries such as Romania, Lebanon, Cyprus, Finland, Italy and France.

Kim graduated from Franklin University in 1990 with a degree in International Relations, which then led to a career at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Copenhagen (Denmark). A change of career then brought Kim back to Lugano in 1993, where he through the years managed both Italian and Swiss Industrial Groups.

In 2003 he founded KNC Management Consulting in Lugano, through which he was appointed Managing Director of several companies in Italy, Turkey and Germany.

In January 2013 Kim also became Partner in Vigilant Security Group in Lugano and currently also serves on the Board of Trustees of Franklin University Switzerland.
