

Business Profile

Alessandro Venturi

Alessandro Venturi (Ph.D), graduated with full marks in Law at the University of Ferrara, lawyer since 2005, DPhil in public law, is a research fellow in comparative public law at the University of Pavia.

He is author of many scientific publications on general public law, administrative law and comparative public law, the last ones concerning, in particular, the matter of algorithmic regulation, artificial intelligence and the relation between scientific knowledge, law and public responsibility.