

Business Profile

Patrick Ghion

After five years working in Swiss banks, I moved to Asia for a couple of month, working in the marine industry.

I joined the Criminal Police in 1997 and worked in several Divisions, including narcotics, burglary and juvenile.

In 2003 I joined the Computer Crime Division and became responsible for the Division in 2013.

In 2015 I took the responsibility of the Department of Forensic Sciences which has four Divisions, one of them the Computer Crime Division.
