

SMSgt Ameer R. Weston

SMSgt Ameer R. Weston is the Operations Coordinator (OPSCO) for U.S. Embassy Bern. He coordinates, plans, and manages the business for the Defense Attaché Office.

Additionally, SMSgt Weston interfaces with embassy staff on Department of Defense matters and is the primary liaison for DOD members on official duty within the country. Along with his defense duties, he functions as the primary focal point for cyber-related topics for embassy leadership.

SMSgt Weston entered the Air Force as a ground communications technician in September 1998. His background includes leadership roles at the tactical, operational, and strategic levels both in Special Operations and conventional operation arena.

Throughout his diverse career, he has been a team leader of several air operations teams, NCOIC (deployed and the U.S.) of several communications centers, executive communicator for a 3 Star command, and a Special Operations team chief.

Within his Operations Coordinator role, he has been assigned to duties in Burundi, Rwanda, and Switzerland.